

3rd BIENNIAL KANSAS
CONFERENCE
FOR ENDING SEXUAL &
DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

July 30-31, 2019

Engaging in Equity, Accountability and Justice

Lawrence, KS

Audience:

This conference is a networking and learning opportunity for all those working to end sexual and domestic violence. This conference is multi-disciplinary and is appropriate for both prevention and intervention-based professionals.

Featured Guest Speakers:

- Zoë Flowers, Women of Color Network, Inc.
- Lisalyn Jacobs, Center for Survivor Agency & Justice
- Sara Wee, Center for Survivor Agency & Justice
- Sumayya Coleman, Women of Color Network, Inc.

Conference Highlights:

- Engage in deep exploration of the connection between racism, white supremacy, colonization, and sexual and domestic violence.
- Explore how connections inform prevention efforts and draft strategies.
- Discuss bias, its impact on our work and organizations, and explore ways to interrupt and create cultures of inclusion and authenticity.
- Craft a collective commitment statement to racial equity work.

Plus over 15 conference breakout learning sessions focused on various topics, including economic justice, campus work, community engagement, and prevention education.
