

FORD COUNTY COORDINATED COMMUNITY RESPONSE TEAM

is proud to bring a FREE training in-person or virtual attendance by Family Peace Initiative to Dodge City, KS

Cracking the Code: Understanding the Motive of Those Who Batter.

Presenter Info:

Steve Halley and Dorthy Stucky Halley

Family
Peace Initiative

In this training, Dorthy and Steve “crack the code” bringing an understanding of the different types of batterers who have different motives, display different behaviors, and present different dangers to their victim and to their community. Unlocks the mystery of domestic violence, and provides practical information that will change and enhance your response.

WHEN: October 19, 2021 9AM - 5PM

Registration begins at 8:00 AM

WHERE: USD 443 District Building, 2112 1st Ave., Dodge City, KS 67801

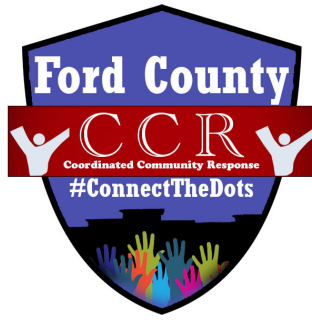

Snacks and drinks provided during the day!

Register via KCSDV website www.KCSDV.org/train/, clicking/scanning QR code, or email the attached form to lizette.garcia@cismidamerica.org or fax at 620-227-4626. For questions call 620-471-2845.

THANK YOU TO OUR SPONSORS:

CRACKING THE CODE- Registration form

OCTOBER 19, 2021

First Name: _____

Last Name: _____

Organization or firm that you work with: _____

Position: _____

Contact number: _____

Email: _____

How will you be attending: In Person
 Virtual